

admissions

By

David Shute

// vedus@butterflybullseye.com //

Released under a Creative Commons
Attribution-Noncommercial 2.5
Canada License

<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/2.5/ca/>

TITLE CARD OVER BLACK

admissions

DAVE (O.S.)
I drive to the store when it's only a block away.

FADE IN:

EXT. STAIRS - DAY

CU on DAVE sitting on the stairs.

DAVE (V.O.)
I buy coffee on my way to work.
Then again at lunch. Perhaps again on my way home.

Begin SLOW PULL BACK to MS on Dave.

DAVE (V.O.)
I buy groceries and then eat take out. I buy a pack of cigarettes nearly every day. My entire purchase history has gone through my credit card at a heavy interest rate.

PULL BACK reveals burning money in Dave's hand.

DAVE (V.O.)
Outside looking in it'd seem like I have money to burn.

Dave closes his hands around the remains of the flaming money extinguishing it and crushing the remains.

CUT TO:

CU Dave's hands.

He pulls his hands apart to reveal a crisp, fresh five dollar bill.

DAVE (V.O.)
So why is it we can't afford five dollars to save a life?

FADE TO WHITE:

DAVE (O.S.)
Up to three million people die each year from malaria. 70% of which are children under five.

FADE IN Against Malaria logo.

DAVE (O.S.)
The most effective prevention? A five dollar bed net.

CUT TO BLACK:

TITLE CARD OVER BLACK

www.AgainstMalaria.com